(Case called)

MR. BALSAMELLO: Good afternoon, your Honor.

Frank Balsamello, for the United States.

THE COURT: Good afternoon.

MR. GOMBINER: Mark Gombiner, Federal Defenders for Mr. Arias.

Good afternoon, Judge.

THE COURT: Good afternoon, Mr. Gombiner.

And good afternoon, Mr. Arias.

MR. GOMBINER: This is Brittany Larson from our office, who is a social worker.

THE COURT: Good afternoon, Ms. Larson.

We are here for a sentencing today in United States v.
Justin Arias, 15 Cr. 773. In preparation for today's proceeding I have reviewed the probation report, which is dated May 23, 2016.

I have also received and reviewed the following additional submissions: I have the defense submission dated June 6, 2016. I has attached as exhibits a letter from Mr. Arias' mother, a compilation of medical records, and a reentry, a reentry plan for Mr. Arias, and I have the government's submission dated June 7, 2016.

Counsel, anything else I should have in front of me for purposes of sentencing?

MR. BALSAMELLO: No, your Honor.

G6anaris

1 MR. GOMBINER: No, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right.

3 Can you confirm that you have received each other's 4 submission?

5 MR. BALSAMELLO: Yes, we have.

6 MR. GOMBINER: Yes, Judge.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 Turning to the presentence report, Mr. Gombiner, I 9 know that you have, but can you confirm that you have reviewed 10 the presentence report and discussed it with your client?

11 MR. GOMBINER: Yes, Judge.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Arias, I just want to make sure you 13 had an opportunity to review the presentence report and raise 14 any issues with your counsel regarding it.

15 Did you?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

18 Mr. Balsamello, for the record, have you reviewed the 19 presentence report?

20 MR. BALSAMELLO: The government has, yes.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 Setting aside for a moment the calculation of the 23 sentencing guidelines, are there any objections to the report
24 regarding factual accuracy

25 MR. BALSAMELLO: Not from the government.

G6anaris

1 MR. GOMBINER: No, Judge.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 Hearing no objections, I will adopt the factual 4 recitations set forth in the PSR and it will be made a part of 5 the record in this matter and placed under seal. If an appeal 6 is taken, counsel on appeal may have access to the sealed 7 report without further application to this court.

8 Turning to the guideline calculation, as counsel is 9 aware, I am no longer required to follow the United States 10 Sentencing Guidelines, but I am still required to consider the 11 applicable guidelines in imposing sentence and must therefore 12 accurately calculate the sentencing guideline range.

13 We have sort of a series of disagreements as to the -- 14 that is to say, I think you are in agreement now and I think I 15 am in agreement with your agreement, but the PSR calculates a 16 substantially different guideline range than the Pimentel 17 letter, and Mr. Gombiner clearly disagrees with the PSR. The 18 government was a little bit less clear as to what it thinks the 19 actual appropriate guideline range is, saying at some points 20 that it agrees with the PSR and then at other points that the 21 46- to 57-month range is appropriate.

22 Mr. Balsamello, just for clarity, what is the 23 government's position?

24 MR. BALSAMELLO: The government's position is that as 25 of today I believe the PSR accurately calculates the

G6anaris

1 guidelines. However, looking forward to a pending change to 2 the guidelines, and the situation with burglary, how that's 3 treated as a crime of violence, that the 46 to 57 is an 4 appropriate range to be considering now, that is, what the 5 guidelines would calculate to under the modification to the 6 guidelines that's pending. That's why we discussed that as a 7 range we view as reasonable at this point. But in terms of as 8 a technical matter calculating them today, I believe the 9 probation report is correct.

10 THE COURT: So the government's position does not take 11 into account Johnson?

12 MR. BALSAMELLO: It does, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Let me ask if you are familiar with United 14 States v. Welch, which is a Second Circuit summary decision.

15 MR. BALSAMELLO: Admittedly, your Honor, I am not 16 personally familiar with it.

17 THE COURT: 2016 WL 576656, which concludes that 18 second degree burglary under the New York provision following 19 Johnson is not a crime of violence for purposes of 4B1.2 in the 20 guidelines, the career offender provision, which as you know 21 shares a definition of crime of violence under 2K1.1(a)(2).

22 MR. BALSAMELLO: Understood, your Honor.

23 To this point we haven't with Mr. Gombiner or in our 24 submissions really discussed or delved into that issue because, 25 considering where the guidelines are going, we are comfortable

G6anaris

1 with the Court sentencing under the guidelines that would be 2 applicable whether for Johnson reasons it's not considered or 3 whether under sort of 3553 based on a forward-looking 4 guidelines analysis that's the number that is reached. Either 5 way we arrive at the same range.

6 THE COURT: OK. Mr. Gombiner?

7 MR. GOMBINER: Judge, I mean, I think I say it in the 8 letter.

9 THE COURT: Could you pull up the microphone.

10 MR. GOMBINER: Sorry.

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

12 MR. GOMBINER: I cited on Taylor and I think Welch
13 follows Taylor.

14 THE COURT: You did.

15 MR. GOMBINER: I don't think either of them count as 16 crimes of violence either now or -- certainly they are not 17 going to count in the next, after six weeks they are not going 18 to count.

19 THE COURT: Right.

20 MR. GOMBINER: So I think we are all in agreement they 21 should be 46 to 57, because I do -- although I am not happy 22 about it, I think the obliterated serial number enhancement and 23 the change in the criminal history score are --

24 THE COURT: Correct.

25 MR. GOMBINER: -- basically I don't have any arguments

G6anaris

1 about those.

2 So, I mean, I would just hope the Court would find the 3 guidelines as 46 to 57 months.

4 THE COURT: I do.

5 MR. GOMBINER: OK. So I don't want to --

6 THE COURT: I have to go through the exercise and say 7 what they are now, and the government isn't willing to do the 8 same, I think.

9 MR. GOMBINER: Thank you.

10 THE COURT: Let me tell you my calculation, and 11 anybody tell me if they have an objection.

12 The base offense level is 14. I have stated it 13 briefly, but I disagree with the PSR's calculation of 14 Mr. Arias' offense level at 24 as an offense subsequent to two 15 convictions of crimes of violence, his prior convictions for 16 burglary in the second degree and attempted burglary in the 17 second degree both under New York Penal Law Section 140.25.

18 The Second Circuit at least in a summary order 19 recently held that in light of Johnson v. United States New 20 York second degree burglary is not a crime of violence under 21 Section 4B1.2, which shares a definition of crime of violence 22 under 2K2.1(a)(2). I cited the case, but I will cite it again, 23 United States v. Welch, 2016 WL 536656.

24 As the Second Circuit observes in this opinion and as 25 the government just described, the Sentencing Commission has

G6anaris

1 amended the guidelines to remove the residual clause from the 2 guidelines effective August 1, 2016. For these reasons, I 3 conclude that Mr. Arias' prior burglary convictions are not 4 crimes of violence for purposes of his offense level 5 calculation.

6 So we started with a base offense level of 15. Four 7 levels are added for a firearm with an obliterated serial 8 number, and four levels are added for possessing the firearm in 9 connection with another felony offense.

10 That is an adjusted level of 22, minus 3 for 11 acceptance of responsibility, and that is a total offense level 12 of 19.

13 Mr. Arias' criminal history category is IV, and that 14 would produce a guideline range of 46 to 57 months.

15 Any objections?

16 MR. GOMBINER: No, Judge.

17 MR. BALSAMELLO: Your Honor, without conceding any 18 sort of Johnson issue for the office, I have no objection to 19 you proceeding with that calculation.

20 THE COURT: I mean, your office conceded it in Welch
21 as it turns out. Maybe your office should take a look at that 22 decision.

23 MR. BALSAMELLO: Understood. Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Actually, I guess it was the western 25 District. So it wasn't your office. I take that back.

G6anaris

1 In any event, you won't have to sweat it in six weeks 2 I suppose, but here we are.

3 We will talk about variance in a moment, as the papers 4 do, but I just want to confirm that neither side is seeking an 5 upward or downward departure within the guidelines system.

6 MR. BALSAMELLO: We are not.

7 MR. GOMBINER: Not under the guidelines.

8 THE COURT: Nevertheless, I have considered whether 9 there is an appropriate basis for a departure from the 10 guideline range within the guidelines system and did not find 11 that there are any grounds warranting a departure under the 12 guidelines system. As I said, I'm happy to hear arguments as 13 to variance.

14 Mr. Balsamello, do you wish to be heard?

15 MR. BALSAMELLO: Briefly, your Honor.

16 I think we would rest primarily on our submission. I
17 think the two specific things I would highlight, Mr. Gombiner 18 in his submission includes a reentry plan which I have seen a 19 number of times now. I think it is sort of increasingly part 20 of the Federal Defenders sentencing submissions.

21 I would note that I at least have some concern about 22 the overcited implementation of these reentry plans. It 23 obviously sets forth certain services and certain steps that I 24 think everyone would want to see when the defendant is 25 eventually released, but to look at that as a base for reducing

G6anaris

1 his sentence without knowing sort of who is going to be putting 2 that in place, how it will be in place, it is not under 3 probation's purview, it is not under the Court's purview, it's 4 sort of an advocacy piece as much as anything. It is somewhat 5 concerning.

6 Looking at Mr. Gombiner's submission, something that 7 stood out that I would just highlight is at the end sort of the 8 takeaway from the whole thing is that it is worth taking a 9 chance to sentence Mr. Arias to a shorter term and let him try 10 the reentry plan.

11 I think that's very easy to say from someone removed 12 from someone who is not likely to be shot at by Mr. Arias when 13 he is released. But I would just focus on the fact the offense 14 here is he possessed this firearm. He also discharged it at a 15 group of people.

16 There is a very serious public danger concern here.
17 His conduct is extremely serious, and it needs to be punished, 18 deterred, and Mr. Arias incapacitated for some period of time 19 the government believes within the 46- to 57-month guideline 20 range being appropriate.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 MR. BALSAMELLO: Thank you.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Gombiner.

24 MR. GOMBINER: I am a little puzzled as to why the 25 government is concerned about the fact that we started trying

G6anaris

1 to come up with some of these reentry plans. I think that is 2 actually great positive development.

3 We do have Ms. Larson here, who is our social worker.
4 And, I mean, this isn't some kind of gamesmanship device that 5 we just write up a plan, and then, like, without any intention 6 of following through on it.

7 The plan identifies very specific components. Like, 8 it says what agency will be doing these things and our office 9 has committed to helping to ensure through a weekly call of 10 some kind or meeting that this plan is being adhered to.

11 OK. He hasn't been released from prison yet, so I 12 can't say it's happened yet, because obviously it hasn't. I 13 don't know why that would be a matter for concern. Like, it 14 seems that it's somehow inappropriate for us to be doing that.
15 That doesn't make sense to me.

16 THE COURT: Yes. It sounds like the government wants 17 to make sure you're not pulling one over on me.

18 MR. GOMBINER: Right. OK.

19 Judge, I am just going to trust that the Court is able 20 to fend for itself in that regard.

21 In terms of danger to society, like, I mean, we are 22 not suggesting this is not a serious case and a serious thing 23 that happened. Obviously, it is very serious. So no one is 24 suggesting that.

25 But the way we are going to protect society is not,

G6anaris

1 you know, keeping Mr. Arias in jail for a couple of -- like, 2 you know, whether it is a 21- to 27-month guideline range, 3 which the government would have been arguing under that 4 Pimentel, was an appropriate range -- that isn't what it turned 5 out to be. They didn't happen to know about this YO 6 conviction. I guess, I mean, it's on me, too, neither of us 7 really focused on the fact that the gun had an obliterated 8 serial number.

9 THE COURT: Do you know what happened there? I mean, 10 was the fact of the obliteration not known or just didn't --

11 MR. GOMBINER: It was obvious if you go back and look 12 at it. I mean, which should have been, I mean, in some ways it 13 may have been more obvious to the government because they are 14 the ones who got the discovery material and disseminated it. I 15 just overlooked it. I don't know if I would have done anything 16 different. We probably, you know, still would have pled 17 guilty, but I am not suggesting it would have changed our plea.

18 THE COURT: Right.

19 MR. GOMBINER: In any event, what I do think is 20 important --

21 THE COURT: I am having trouble hearing you.

22 MR. GOMBINER: What I do think is important, and this 23 is something that, you know -- I just was speaking some more to 24 Ms. Castro, who is Mr. Arias' mother and is present here in 25 court -- is that for years and years Ms. Castro has known that

G6anaris

1 her son has some serious problems. You know, Ms. Larson thinks 2 it might be attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder, ADHD.
3 But she describes to me, like, all the efforts she has made to 4 try to get some real help for her son, and, like, essentially 5 they have been ignored, you know, people just, you know, I 6 guess it's what happens when you are, you know, poor and don't 7 have a lot of clout with anyone. But it is, you know, easier 8 just to put someone in jail than it is to spend the energy to 9 try to deal with those problems. And, I mean, OK, this was a 10 very serious crime. It is also the kind of thing that somebody 11 who has ADHD might be more likely to do.

12 This was, you know, Mr. Arias and his friend got into 13 an argument with this group of people. Some of the other 14 people apparently may have been armed or shown a knife or 15 something. And Mr. Arias, just, you know, responded in an 16 impulsive, thoughtless, reckless manner, which is, you know, 17 that's kind of one of the hallmarks of somebody who has ADHD.

18 Now, that's not, like, a defense. We are not saying, 19 OK, well it's fine, you know, or anything like that.

20 I mean, if we want to prevent that in the future, we 21 have to deal with it. I mean, he needs some, like, actual 22 attention paid to that, because otherwise that's just going 23 to -- I'm not saying the same thing is going to happen.
24 Nothing like this had ever happened before. Mr. Arias does not 25 have any history of violence. He's got a history of, you know,

G6anaris

1 he's committed some crimes before, but they weren't violent 2 crimes.

3 THE COURT: No prior guns.

4 MR. GOMBINER: No prior gun. He didn't possess any 5 weapons before. This wasn't really his gun. It was kind of a 6 community gun that he got. OK, I mean a community gun isn't, 7 like, really any greater, like, that's not so good either. You 8 know, he had it, he fired it. So I'm not doubting that, just 9 so the Court knows.

10 But I do think that, you know, it is worth taking a 11 chance. It will give the guy a little shorter of a sentence, 12 and we will try to work and deal with what's really the 13 problem.

14 I mean, it sort of mystifies me in a way why the 15 government would be arguing, like, somehow we are being callous 16 to the people who were being shot at by Mr. Arias. I think 17 they would prefer, you know, that he not be the same kind of 18 person who might do that again. So, we are trying to come up 19 with a constructive way to deal with it.

20 THE COURT: Let me ask, Mr. Gombiner, it is not 21 included in the proposed supervision terms in this PSR, I don't 22 think, but I do sometimes have proposed to me a provision that 23 the defendant shall participate in an outpatient mental health 24 program, which seems to me consistent with the mental health 25 component of the reentry plan you submitted.

G6anaris

1 MR. GOMBINER: Yes. I think that is a condition that 2 absolutely should be part, whatever the sentence is, should be 3 part of any supervised release conditions.

4 THE COURT: That would address --

5 MR. GOMBINER: I would completely endorse that.

6 THE COURT: That addresses, at least in that respect, 7 Mr. Balsamello's concern about the lack of enforceability --

8 MR. GOMBINER: Yes.

9 THE COURT: -- of that aspect of the reentry plan.

10 MR. GOMBINER: Right.

11 If you want to order all the conditions as far as the 12 reentry plan, that is fine with us too. That is OK. I don't 13 have any objection.

14 I mean, you know, I don't want to put it on 15 Ms. Larson's shoulders that she's going to be like, you know, 16 violating supervised release if she doesn't, but, you know, 17 that would be fine.

18 THE COURT: What do you think about that,
19 Mr. Balsamello?

20 MR. BALSAMELLO: I think that actually would address 21 much of the issues if it were a part of supervision that the 22 court imposes. I am not sure the extent to which the Court can 23 direct the Federal Defenders office to do anything specific.
24 It is probation --

25 THE COURT: I can certainly, as I have in many cases,

G6anaris

1 impose a requirement of participation in an outpatient medical 2 health program approved by the probation office, and I can 3 encourage working with the Federal Defenders certainly in that 4 regard. But, under the penalty of further punishment for 5 failure to participate, it would require Mr. Arias to 6 participate in mental health treatment.

7 MR. BALSAMELLO: Understood. I agree that is 8 something that is warranted. I would still take the position 9 that the guideline range is appropriate given the conduct and 10 other considerations. I do just want to clarify that my 11 comments earlier were not suggesting any nefarious intent by 12 anyone.

13 I think the intentions are correct and that the goals 14 of such a plan are ones that everyone agrees on. I don't think 15 the Court is getting duped by anything. It really is a matter 16 of implementation and not doing sort of a plan is one thing, 17 but what does it mean when the defendant is ultimately 18 released?

19 MR. GOMBINER: Also, just to make one thing clear from 20 our side, we are not dissing the probation officer saying that 21 they do -- I mean, the probation officers, many of them are 22 very concerned and they are very -- this isn't about, like, 23 probation being bad. It just that I think, you know, if we 24 help with this, and come up with a, like, maybe a little more 25 global proposal that that's additional assistance. So I don't

G6anaris

1 want to be like, you know, this isn't a war with the probation 2 office.

3 THE COURT: I didn't understand to be. And I am happy 4 to see the reentry plan here and in other cases.

5 MR. GOMBINER: Thank you.

6 Judge, the other thing I do want to just remind the 7 Court was that Mr. Arias -- I mean, this is just unfortunate 8 that it happened -- has had a very serious and ongoing issue
9 with his leg. He is still walking with a cane -- or his hip 10 really.

11 And that's just, an additional, you know, thing he has 12 to overcome. I think it also, just on a practical level, 13 lessens the risk of any repeats of violence, but he's not very 14 mobile right at the moment or is likely to be, because what 15 they had to do is they had to put some, I think it's called -- 16 I can't think of it, some name for it. It's some kind of like 17 bone. I think they take it from cadavers and they had to put 18 that in his hip and put a screw in and everything because his 19 hip was on the point of -- it was already fractured. It was on 20 the point of breaking. So that was a pretty serious operation, 21 and it is still causing him a lot of pain. The last medical 22 notes I noticed is that the sclerosis seemed a little worse.
23 It is an ongoing problem.

24 THE COURT: Right.

25 MR. GOMBINER: But I do think that a sentence within

G6anaris

1 the range of the government's initial Pimentel letter would be 2 the appropriate sentence. Thank you.

3 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Gombiner.

4 All right. Mr. Arias, you don't have to make a 5 statement to the Court, but if you would like to, you may do so 6 now, sir.

7 THE DEFENDANT: I would like to apologize for my 8 actions. Me meeting with my social worker, Ms. Larson has 9 shown me that there is a lot of opportunities out there to help 10 me with my issues as far as mental health, employment training 11 and education, and I'm willing to put the effort in and succeed 12 in my life.

13 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Arias.

14 Counsel, anything else to bring up before I give my 15 sentencing conclusion?

16 MR. BALSAMELLO: No, your Honor. Thank you.

17 MR. GOMBINER: No, Judge.

18 Thank you very much.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 As I have stated, the guideline range applicable to 21 this case is 46 to 57 months' imprisonment. Under the Supreme 22 Court's decision in Booker and its progeny, the guideline range 23 is only one factor the Court must consider in deciding the 24 appropriate sentence.

25 I'm also required to consider the other factors set

G6anaris

1 forth in 18 U.S.C. Section 3553(a). These include the nature 2 and circumstances of the offense and the history and 3 characteristics of the defendant, the need for the sentence 4 imposed to reflect the seriousness of the offense, to promote 5 respect for the law, and to provide just punishment for the 6 offense, to afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct, to 7 protect the public from further crimes of the defendant, and to 8 provide the defendant with needed education or vocational 9 training, medical care or other treatment in the most effective 10 manner.

11 I am to take into account the kinds of sentences
12 available, as I've said, the guideline range and any pertinent 13 policy statement, the need to avoid unwarranted sentence 14 disparities among defendants with similar records, and the need 15 to provide restitution to any victims of the offense.

16 I am required to impose a sufficient, but no greater 17 than necessary, to comply with the purposes I have just 18 described.

19 I have given substantial thought and attention to the 20 appropriate sentence in this case in light of the 3553(a) 21 factors and the appropriate purposes of sentencing as reflected 22 in the statute.

23 I am concerned about the very serious and dangerous 24 conduct in issue here. Mr. Arias has pled guilty to being a 25 felon in possession of a firearm. Specifically, he actively

G6anaris

1 shot a firearm following a dispute. It's obviously very 2 dangerous conduct. Thankfully nobody was hurt, but certainly 3 someone could have been, including innocent bystanders.

4 Given the dangerous nature of the conduct, a serious 5 sentence is warranted to reflect the seriousness of the 6 offense, to protect the public from further crimes of the 7 defendant, and to deter Mr. Arias and others.

8 Deterrence is additionally necessary here as this is 9 not Mr. Arias' first offense. It is his third felony 10 conviction in the last four years. He's faced prior 11 incarceration that has not sufficiently deterred his criminal 12 conduct. This concern is further underscored by the fact that 13 Mr. Arias was on parole when he committed this offense.

14 But, of course, I must and I do take into account the 15 history and characteristics of this defendant. I mentioned his 16 prior convictions, none of which were violent. There are no 17 prior gun charges. That matters to me. Mr. Arias has pled 18 guilty and accepted responsibility. That, too, is important to 19 me in deciding what sentence to impose.

20 Mr. Arias is young, just 21 years old. Based on the 21 record before me, it's clear he has faced challenges in his 22 life and faces continuing challenges with the health issues he 23 faces now.

24 I am pleased to see that there is a serious reentry 25 plan in place to assist Mr. Arias following his period of

G6anaris

1 incarceration. At base, I will vary to some extent below the 2 guideline sentence imposed here so that the sentence is 3 sufficient, but no greater than necessary, to comply with the 4 purposes I have just described.

5 I will now state the sentence I intend to impose.

6 Mr. Arias, will you please rise.

7 It is the judgment of this Court that you are to be 8 remanded to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for 36 months, 9 to be followed by a period of three years of supervised 10 release.

11 Please be seated, sir.

12 During your period of supervised release, the standard 13 conditions of supervised release shall apply. In addition you 14 will be subject to the following mandatory conditions:

15 You shall not commit another federal, state, or local 16 crime.

17 You shall not illegally possess a controlled 18 substance.

19 You shall not possess a firearm or destructive device.

20 You shall refrain from any unlawful use of a 21 controlled substance and shall submit to one drug testing 22 within 15 days of placement on supervised release, and at least 23 two unscheduled drug tests thereafter as directed by the 24 probation officer.

25 You shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as

G6anaris

1 directed by the probation officer.

2 In addition you will be subject to the following 3 special conditions:

4 You will be subject to the search term that's outlined 5 on page 19 of the PSR in paragraph 1, that you shall submit 6 your person, residence, and place of business, vehicle or any 7 other premises under your control to a search on the basis that 8 the probation officer has reasonable belief that contraband or 9 evidence of a violation of the conditions of release may be 10 found.

11 You shall report to the nearest probation office 12 within 72 hours of release from custody.

13 I do recommend that you be supervised in your district 14 of residence.

15 Consistent with the reentry plan submitted and as 16 discussed earlier, I'm also imposing the following special 17 condition:

18 You shall participate in an outpatient mental health
19 program approved by the United States probation office, and you 20 shall continue to take any prescribed medication unless 21 otherwise instructed by health care providers. You shall 22 contribute to the cost of services rendered not covered by 23 third-party payment if you are able to pay. I do authorize the 24 release of available psychological and psychiatric evaluations 25 and reports, including the presentence investigation report, to 1 the health care provider.

2 I would like to impose all of the conditions of the 3 reentry plan. I don't have specific terms for them for 4 inclusion in the PSR, so I will just include as a formal matter 5 the ones I've outlined, but will certainly assume that with 6 Ms. Larson and with the Federal Defenders that all aspects of 7 the reentry plan, every effort will be made to follow through 8 with them, as I believe that the purposes of punishment that I 9 described will be aided by Mr. Arias' commitment to the plan as 10 has been submitted to me.

11 I will waive the fine, because I don't believe 12 Mr. Arias has the ability to pay the fine. I am imposing a 13 mandatory special assessment of $100, which will be due 14 immediately.

15 I believe there's nothing to take up regarding 16 restitution or forfeiture, Mr. Balsamello.

17 MR. BALSAMELLO: That's correct.

18 THE COURT: Does either counsel know of any legal 19 reason why the sentence should not be imposed as stated?

20 MR. BALSAMELLO: No, your Honor.

21 MR. GOMBINER: No, Judge.

22 THE COURT: The sentence is imposed as stated. I do 23 find the sentence is sufficient, but not greater than 24 necessary, to satisfy the sentencing purposes I described 25 earlier.

G6anaris

1 Mr. Arias, when you are released and on supervised 2 release you will have the guidance and support of the probation 3 department as you reestablish your day-to-day life during your 4 period of supervised release. I do urge you to take advantage 5 of these resources in addition to the ones that the Federal 6 Defenders will work with you on. All of those folks are 7 committed to helping you succeed.

8 That said, I have to caution you that you must comply 9 strictly with all of the conditions of your supervised release.
10 If you are brought back before me for any violations of those 11 conditions, I may sentence you to another term of imprisonment, 12 and I hope and expect you won't put me to that decision.

13 Mr. Gombiner, any requests regarding designation of 14 prison location?

15 MR. GOMBINER: Just a facility as close to New York as 16 possible that's able to provide the appropriate medical care 17 for Mr. Arias.

18 THE COURT: I do make the recommendation to the Bureau
19 of Prisons for a facility as close to New York City as possible 20 to help facilitate ties with his family and to provide the 21 appropriate facility that can provide the appropriate medical 22 care for Mr. Arias in light of his documented and serious 23 medical conditions.

24 Mr. Balsamello, are there any remaining counts or 25 underlying indictments that need to be dismissed at this time?

G6anaris

1 MR. BALSAMELLO: No, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Arias, I see no basis for an appeal, 3 but I am required to inform you of your appellate rights.

4 To the extent you have not given up your right to 5 appeal your conviction through your plea of guilty and the 6 agreement that you entered into with the government in 7 connection with -- well, there was no agreement, so just to the 8 extent you have not given up your right to appeal, you do have 9 the right to appeal.

10 If you are unable to pay the cost of an appeal, you 11 may apply for leave to appeal in forma pauper, which means with 12 no cost to you for filing fees. The notice of appeal must be 13 filed within 14 days of the judgment of conviction.

14 Counsel, is there anything else that I can address at 15 this time?

16 MR. BALSAMELLO: No, your Honor.

17 MR. GOMBINER: No, Judge. Thank you.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 If there's nothing further, Mr. Arias, good luck to 20 you, sir. I am glad to see the reentry plan in place, and I'm 21 glad that the assistance of Ms. Larson has been helpful to you 22 and I hope that you take full advantage of that during your 23 period of supervised release.

24 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Good luck to you, sir.

G6anaris

1 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you.

2 THE COURT: We are adjourned.
